(c) require any person to disclose any information within such person's knowledge relevant to any investigation by the Commission.

PART III — INVESTIGATIONS BY THE COMMISSION

Powers relating to investigations.

28.(1) The Commission may, for the purpose of conducting any investigation pertaining to an inquiry, employ the services of any public officer or investigation agency of the Government at the expense of the Commission.

(2) For the purpose of investigating any matter pertaining to an inquiry, a public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) may, subject to the direction and control of the Commission-

(a) summon and enforce the attendance of any person for examination;

(b) require the discovery and production of any document; and

(c) subject to the Constitution and any written law, requisition any public record or copy thereof from any public officer.

(3) The provisions of section 40 shall apply in relation to any statement made by a person before any public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) as they apply in relation to any statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission.

(4) The public officer or agency whose services are employed under subsection (1) shall investigate any matter pertaining to the inquiry and submit a report thereon to the Commission in that behalf.

(5) The Commission shall satisfy itself on the correctness of the facts stated and the conclusion, if any, arrived at in the report submitted to it under subsection (4) and for that purpose, the Commission may make such inquiry (including the examination of any person or persons who conducts or assists in the investigation) as it deems fit.

29. (1) The Commission shall investigate any complaint, or on its own initiative, investigate any matter relating to human rights in-

(a) a public office or a private institution;

(b) Any other body or agency of the State.
   a) a public office or a private institution; or

   (b) any other body or agency of the State.

(2) The Commission shall endeavor to resolve any matter brought before it by conciliation, mediation or negotiation.

(3) If the matter referred to under subsection (2) cannot be resolved by conciliation, mediation or negotiation and the Commission determines that there is discrimination carried out unjustly or unreasonably, the Commission shall make such recommendations as it deems fit.

30. The Commission shall not investigate-

(a) a matter pending before any court or judicial tribunal;

(b) a criminal offence;

(c) a matter relating to relations between the State and any foreign State or international organization recognized as such under any international law;

(d) a matter relating to the exercise of the prerogative of mercy;

(e) a matter relating to equality and freedom from discrimination;

(f) anything in respect of which there is a right of appeal or other legal remedy unless, in the opinion of the Commission, it is not reasonable to expect that right of appeal or other legal remedy to be resorted to; or

(g) any matter for the time being under investigation by any other person or Commission established under the Constitution or any other written law

31. The Commission may investigate or carry out inquiry into any matter despite a provision in any written law to the effect that the action is final or cannot be appealed, challenged, reviewed, questioned or called in question.

32.(1) A complaint to the Commission may only be made by the person aggrieved by the matter complained of or on his behalf as specified under subsection (2).

(2) A complaint may be made on behalf of an aggrieved person –
(a) if the aggrieved person is dead or otherwise not able to act for himself or herself, by a member of his or her family or other person suitable to represent the aggrieved person; or

(b) by a member of the National Assembly with the consent of the aggrieved person or other person who, under paragraph (a), is entitled to make the complaint on behalf of the aggrieved person.

33. (1) A person wishing to lodge a complaint alleging violation of human rights may do so orally or in writing addressed to the secretary or such other person as may be duly authorised by the Commission for that purpose.

(2) Where a complaint under subsection (1) is made orally, the Commission shall cause the complaint to be recorded in writing.

(3) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be in such form and contain such particulars as the Commission may prescribe.

(4) Upon receipt of a complaint under subsection (1), the Commission may –

(a) call for information or a report regarding such complaint from any person within such reasonable time as may be specified by the Commission;

(b) without prejudice to paragraph (a), initiate such inquiry as it considers necessary, having regard to the nature of the complaint.

(5) If the information or report called for under subsection (4)(a) is not received within the time stipulated by the Commission, the Commission may proceed to inquire into the complaint without such information or report.

(6) If on receipt of the information or report the Commission is satisfied either that no further action is required or that the required action has been initiated by a State organ or other body responsible for the matters complained of, the Commission shall, in writing, inform the complainant accordingly and take no further action.

34. The Commission may decline to investigate a complaint if the Commission considers that –

(a) there are in existence adequate remedies under any written law or administrative practice; or

(b) the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or is not made in good faith.

35. If the Commission decides not to investigate a complaint or to discontinue the investigation of a complaint, the Commission shall inform the complainant in writing of that decision and the reasons for the decision as soon as reasonably practicable.

36. The Commission shall give any person, State organ, public office or organization against whom an adverse finding or recommendation is made an opportunity to make representations concerning the finding or recommendation before the Commission includes the finding in its report.

37. Before commencing an investigation under this Act, the Commission shall give notice of the intended investigation to the administrative head of the State organ, public office or organization to which the investigation relates.

38. The hearings of the Commission during an inquiry shall be open to the public, except where the Commission otherwise decides.

39.(1) Subject to subsection (2), if at any stage of an inquiry the Commission—

(a) considers it necessary to inquire into the conduct of any person; or

(b) is of the opinion that the reputation of any person is likely to be prejudiced by the inquiry, it shall give that person an opportunity to appear before the Commission by himself or by an advocate to give evidence in his own defence.

(2) This section shall not apply where the credibility of a witness is being impeached.

40. No statement made by a person in the course of giving evidence before the Commission shall subject such person to any civil or criminal proceedings except for giving false evidence by such statement.

41. The Commission may, upon inquiry into a complaint under this Act take any of the following steps—

(a) where the inquiry into a violation of human rights or negligence discloses a criminal offence, refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions or any other relevant authority or undertake such other action as the Commission may deem fit against the concerned person or persons;

(b) recommend to the complainant a course of other judicial redress which does not warrant an application under Article 22 of the Constitution;
(c) recommend to the complainant and to the relevant governmental agency or other body concerned in the alleged violation of human rights other appropriate methods of settling the complaint or to obtain relief;

(d) provide a copy of the inquiry report to all interested parties; and

(e) submit summonses as it deems necessary in fulfillment of its mandate.

PART IV – REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

42.(1) After concluding an investigation or an inquiry under this Act, the Commission shall make a report to the state organ, public office or organization to which the investigation relates.

(2) The report shall include-

(a) the findings of the investigation and any recommendations made by the Commission;

(b) the action the Commission considers should be taken and the reasons for the action; and

(c) any recommendations the Commission considers appropriate.

(3) The Commission may require the State organ, public office or organization that was the subject of the investigation to submit a report to the Commission within a specified period on the steps, if any, taken to implement the recommendations of the Commission.

(4) If there is failure or refusal to implement the recommendations of the Commission within the specified time, the Commission shall prepare and submit to the National Assembly a report, detailing the failure or refusal to implement its recommendations, and the National Assembly shall take appropriate action.

43. The Commission shall inform the complainant on the results of the investigation in writing.

44. If, after an investigation, the Commission is of the opinion that there is evidence that a person, an officer or employee of the State organ, public office or organization which was investigated under this Act is guilty of misconduct, the Commission shall report the matter to the appropriate authority.

PART V—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS.

45. The funds of the Commission shall consist of—

(a) monies allocated by Parliament for the purposes of the Commission;

(b) such monies or assets as may accrue to the Commission in the course of the exercise of its powers or in the performance of its functions under this Act; and

(c) all monies from any other source provided, donated or lent to the Commission.

46. The financial year of the Commission shall be the period of twelve months ending on the thirtieth of June in each year.

47. (1) Before the commencement of each financial year, the Commission shall cause to be prepared estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the Commission for that year.
(2) The annual estimates shall make provision for all the estimated expenditure of the Commission for the financial year concerned and, in particular, shall provide for —

(a) payment of the salaries, allowances and other charges in respect of the staff of the Commission;

(b) payment of pensions, gratuities and other charges and in respect of benefits which are payable out of the funds of the Commission;

(d) funding of training, research and development of activities of the Commission;

(e) creation of such funds to meet future or contingent liabilities in respect of benefits, insurance or replacement of buildings or installations, equipment and in respect of such other matters as the Commission may think fit.

(3) The annual estimates shall be approved by the Commission before the commencement of the financial year to which they relate and shall be submitted to the Cabinet Secretary for tabling in National Assembly.

(4) No expenditure shall be incurred for the purposes of the Commission except in accordance with the annual estimates approved under subsection (3).

48. (1) The Commission shall cause to be kept all proper books and records of account of the income, expenditure, assets and liabilities of the Commission.

(2) Within a period of three months after the end of each financial year, the Commission shall submit to the Auditor-General the accounts of the Commission in respect of that year together with a —

(a) statement of the income and expenditure of the Commission during that year; and

(b) statement of the assets and liabilities of the Commission on the last day of that financial year.

(3) The annual accounts of the Commission shall be prepared, audited and reported upon in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and the Public Audit Act.

49. The Commission shall open and maintain such bank accounts as shall be necessary for the performance of its functions.

PART VI — MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

50. (1) The Commission and the staff of the Commission shall maintain confidence in respect of all matters that come to their knowledge in the exercise of their duties.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Article 35 of the Constitution, the Commission and the staff of the Commission shall not be called to give evidence in respect of any matter that comes to their knowledge in the exercise of their duties.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commission may disclose in any report made by the Commission under this Act, any matter that in the opinion of the Commission may be disclosed in order to establish grounds for the Commission’s findings and recommendations of the Commission.
51. Every person in charge of a prison, remand or mental institution where a person is held in custody, or of any institution where a person is a patient or inmate shall ensure, notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, that any correspondence from such person to the Commission is transmitted in confidence and any written communication in that regard shall remain sealed.

(2) The Commission shall publish the report in the Gazette and in at least one newspaper with national circulation.

(3) The President, the National Assembly or the Senate may at any time require the Commission to submit a report on a particular issue.

54. (1) The Cabinet Secretary shall, prepare an annual report on the implementation of human rights and shall submit the report to Parliament in accordance with Article 153(4) (b) of the Constitution.

(2) Where any of the recommendations contained in report submitted under subsection (1) have not been implemented, the Cabinet Secretary shall report to the National Assembly the reasons therefor.

55. Parliament shall, upon expiry of five years from the date of commencement of this Act, and pursuant to Article 59(4) of the Constitution, review the mandate of the Commission with a view to amalgamating the Commission with the commission responsible for administrative justice.

56. The Commission may make regulations for the better carrying into effect of the provisions of this Act
PART VII - SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

57.(1) All complaints, which immediately before the commencement of this Act were made to the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission and the former Kenya National Commission on Human Rights at the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been made to the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall transfer complaints relating to the mandate of the National Gender and Equality Commission and the Commission on Administrative Justice to these commissions unless the investigation or inquiry relating to the complaint is at such a stage that such transfer may result in a delay of justice for those involved.

58. The Commission shall be bound in all contracts, including contracts of service, if any, subsisting at the commencement of this Act and to which the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission was party.

59.(1) Notwithstanding section 60-

(a) any order or notice made or issued by the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission and the former Kenya National Commission on Human Rights shall be deemed to have been made or issued under this Act;

(b) any function carried out by the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission and the former Kenya National Commission on Human Rights during the transition period shall be deemed to have been carried out under this Act;

(c) all assets and liabilities which immediately before the commencement of this Act were vested in the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission and the former Kenya National Commission on Human Rights shall vest in the Commission;

(d) all rights, powers and duties, whether arising under any written law or otherwise which immediately before the coming into operation of this Act were vested in the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission shall be transferred to, vested, imposed on, or be enforceable by or against the Commission;

(e) all actions, suits or legal proceedings by or against the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission shall be carried out on, prosecuted by or against the Commission and no such suit, action or legal proceedings shall abate or be affected by the coming into operation of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding section 9, the persons who were members of the former Kenya National Commission on Human Rights and who became members of the Kenya National Human Rights and Equality Commission pursuant to section 26 of the Sixth Schedule to the Constitution shall become members of the Commission upon the commencement of this Act for their unexpired term.

60. The Kenya National Commission on Human Rights Act, 2002 is repealed.

SECOND SCHEDULE

MEETINGS AND PROCEDURE OF THE COMMISSION

Meetings.

1. (1) The Commission shall decide when and where it meets and the meetings shall be convened by the chairperson.

(2) The Commission shall have at least four meetings in every financial year and not more than four months shall elapse between one meeting and the next meeting.
(3) Unless three quarters of the members otherwise agree, at least seven days’ notice in writing of a meeting shall be given to every member.

(4) A meeting shall be presided over by the chairperson or in his or her absence by the vice-chairperson.

(5) The members of the Commission shall elect a vice-chairperson from among themselves-

(a) at the first sitting of the Commission; and

(b) whenever it is necessary to fill the vacancy in the office of the vice-chairperson.

(6) The chairperson and vice-chairperson shall not be of the same gender.

(7) The Commission may invite any person to attend any of its meetings and to participate in its deliberations, but such person shall not have a vote in any decision of the Commission.

2. (1) If any person has a personal or fiduciary interest in any matter before the Commission, and is present at a meeting of the Commission or any committee at which any matter is the subject of consideration, that person shall as soon as is practicable after the commencement of the meeting, declare such interest and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on any question touching such matter.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subparagraph (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) A person who contravenes subparagraph (1) commits an offence and is liable, upon conviction, to a fine not exceeding three million shillings, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) No member or staff of the Commission shall transact any business or trade with the Commission.

Quorum.

3. (1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the quorum of the meeting shall not be less than half of the appointed members.

(2) Where there is a vacancy in the Commission, the quorum of the meeting shall not be less than three appointed members.

Voting.

4. A question before the Commission shall be decided with a supporting vote of at least two thirds of the members present.

Rules of procedure and minutes.

5. The Commission shall-

(a) determine rules of procedure for the conduct of its business; and

(b) keep minutes of its proceedings and decisions.
