

Civil Society Workshop

CITIZENSHIP AND CONSERVATION: DEMOCRATISING NATURAL RESOURCES MANAGEMENT IN KENYA

Ngong Hills Hotel| Nairobi| Friday 16th-Saturday 17th June 2017

Programme: 16th June 2017

Time	Activity	Lead
8.30-9.00am	Arrival and registration	ILEG
9.00-9.30am	Introduction and Opening Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Benson Ochieng – Executive Director, ILEG ▪ Uraia Trust (TBC)
9.30-10.30am	Agenda Setting
	Legal and Policy Imperatives for Participatory and Sustainable Natural Resource Management in Kenya	TBC
10.30-11.00am	Tea Break/Group Photo
11.00-1.00pm	Natural resources and the link to democracy, peaceful elections and coexistence.
	The land question and peaceful elections in Kenya	Benson Ochieng – Executive Director, ILEG
	Oil & Gas and Mining in 2017 Political Agenda	Charles Wanguhu – Coordinator, KCSPOG
	Business and Human Rights: The case of oil & gas and mining in Kenya	Rose Kimotho – Programme Manager, IHRB
1.00-2.00pm	Lunch Break
2.00-3.30pm	The role of civil Society in democratising natural resource management and utilization in Kenya
	General Analysis of the role and performance of civil Society with regard to promoting sustainable, participatory and democratic management of natural resource management in Kenya.	Chris Owalla – Executive Director, CIAG Kenya
	Has the Kenya civil society lived up to its role so far?	Wilson Kipkazi - Executive Director, Endorois Welfare Council and Chair, NGO Council.
3.15-3.30pm	Tea Break

3.30-4.45pm	Open session: Participants skill share	Duncan Okowa – Programme Officer, ILEG
4.45-5.00pm	Wrap-up Close of Day 1

Programme: June 17th 2017

Time	Activity	Lead
8.30-9.00am	Arrival and registration	ILEG
9.00-9.15am	Recap of Day 1	Duncan
9.15-9.45am	Impacts of Community-based Conservation Model in Northern Kenya: Insights from the research	Johnson Olekaunga – Director, IMPACT
9.45-10.45am	Civic Education, Natural Resources and Elections in Kenya
	Civic Education and Elections in Kenya: has it worked?	TBC
	Gender and Decision Making in Natural Resource Management	Beldine Otieno - Sauti ya Wanawake, Pwani
10.45-11.00am	Tea Break
11.00-11.30am	The role of the media in civic education and promoting democratic governance of natural resources: Opportunities and challenges	William Janak Oloo – Chairman, Kenya Correspondents Association (KCA)
11.30-12.00am	Strengthening Civil Society Participation in Democratising Natural Resource Management in Kenya	Benson Ochieng – Executive Director, ILEG
12.30-1.00am	Wrap-up
1.00pm	Lunch Close of Workshop	