

County-level Extractive Sector' Forum (ESF). Monday 16th April 2018. The Cradle Early Oil Pilot Scheme: What Does It Mean?'

Programme: Monday 16th April 2018

- 8.30 – 9.30am Registration
- 9.30 – 10.00am Welcome and Opening Remarks
- Benson Ochieng, Executive Director, ILEG
 - Jacqueline Okanga, Aga Khan University – East Africa Institute
 - Tom Onyango, Oxford Policy management (OPM)
- Official Opening – Turkana County Government
- 10.00 – 10.30am Presentation on the Background Paper on the Early Oil Pilot Scheme (EOPS)
- 10.30 – 10.45am Comments, Clarifications
- 10.45 – 11.00am Tea Break
- 11.00 – 1.00 Panel 1 Discussion: THE EARLY OIL PILOT SCHEME AND KENYA'S PREPAREDNESS FOR THE SAME
- This session will bring together representatives of policy makers, industry, civil society and community to clarify what the EOPS means, what it involves and Kenya's preparedness for the same.
- Moderator Benson Ochieng
- Panel Ministry of Petroleum and Mining
Turkana County Government
Tullow Oil Kenya
David Ekiru, Chairman - Turkana Professionals Association (TPA)
Fr. Paul Areman, Diocese of Lodwar
Jackson Nakusa
- 1.00 – 2.00pm Lunch
- 2.00 – 3.30pm Panel 2 Discussion: THE EARLY OIL PILOT SCHEME: CLEARING THE BOTTLENECKS
- This session will delve into the outstanding issues around the EOPS such as the EOPS project viability; knowledge and awareness around the EOPS; the EOPS and Petroleum Bill; waste management; security; and synergies between the national and Turkana county governments.
- Moderator Jacqueline Okanga
- Panel Ministry of Petroleum and Mining
Tullow Oil Kenya
Jilani Chiro, County Director (Turkana), NEMA
Benjamin Ebenyo, Council of Elders, Lokichar
Mr Alexander Lama
Andrew Orina, Friends of Lake Turkana
County Commissioner, Turkana
- 3.30 – 3.45pm *Wrap-up
Tea, Networking*